

Asia-Pacific Federation

APF of the World Council for Gifted and Talented Children

Annual Summer Conference on Gifted Education

The Korean Society for the Gifted held the 32nd Annual Summer Conference on Gifted Education on July 3rd, 2007 at Hanyang University, Seoul, Korea with 3 invited speakers: Dr. Howard Gardner, Professor of the Harvard University, U.S.A. and Dr. BumMo Chung, Member of the National Academy of Sciences, Republic of Korea, and Dr. Moon YongLin, Professor at the Seoul National University. Dr. Howard Gardner delivered a speech on "Five Minds for the Future" and Dr. Chung on "Education and Knowledge Value System", Moon YongLin on "Multiple intelligence Approach on the Realization of Human Potentials" In addition, there were 13 more individual paper presentations with 400 participants from schools and universities all over the Republic of Korea.